A Message From the President

As we celebrate 100 years of Lionism, I am truly honored to have served as President of the Long Beach Lions Club for more than a decade. It has been one of the greatest privileges of my life to lead an organization whose members embody the spirit of service, compassion, and generosity.

Throughout these years, I have witnessed firsthand the unwavering dedication of our Lions. Whether supporting those in need, strengthening our local communities, or answering the call to serve wherever help is needed, our members have consistently demonstrated what it means to live by our motto: "We Serve." Our centennial celebration is a testament to the countless Lions, past and present, whose selfless efforts have transformed lives and built a legacy that continues to inspire future generations.

This remarkable milestone belongs not only to our club, but to every member who has volunteered their time, shared their talents, and given so generously of themselves over the past century. I am deeply grateful to be a part of this extraordinary legacy and look forward with great optimism to the work that still lies ahead.

This evening we are especially proud to recognize several outstanding members of our community whose dedication and generosity exemplify the very values of Lionism.

We proudly honor the Natalello family of Jack's Pizzeria for their continued generosity, friendship, and unwavering support of our club and the community we serve. We also recognize Mayor Michael and Jeanne McGinty for their years of devoted service to the Village of Island Park and for their steadfast commitment to the Long Beach Lions Club. Their leadership and dedication have made a meaningful difference in the lives of so many. Finally, we honor the McAvoy family, whose generations of leadership, volunteerism, and commitment to service have left an enduring mark on both the Long Beach Lions Club and the community we are proud to serve. Their legacy is a shining example of what can be accomplished through dedication, integrity, and a genuine desire to help others.

As we celebrate our first 100 years, we take pride in honoring those who came before us, celebrating the service we continue to provide today, and looking ahead with confidence and enthusiasm for the next century of Lionism. Together we will continue to strengthen our communities, uplift those in need, and carry forward the mission that has united Lions around the world for generations.

Thank you to all who have helped make this centennial celebration possible and to every Lion, volunteer, supporter, and community partner who continues to make our work meaningful. It is because of your commitment that our legacy of service remains as strong today as it was 100 years ago.

Yours in Lionism,

Allen Schwartz

Long Beach Lions Club President

A Century of Service

For 100 years, the Long Beach Lions Club has proudly served our neighbors with one guiding principle: “unselfish service to others.” That simple motto has inspired generations of dedicated men and women to give their time, talents and resources in service to others, creating a lasting impact throughout our community and beyond.

Since our founding, our members have remained committed to improving lives through countless service initiatives. We have participated in the LionSee Program, helping to provide vision screenings for children; collected thousands of used eyeglasses and mobile phones for recycling; and transported donated corneas through the Eye-Bank for Sight Restoration Program, helping restore the precious gift of sight to those in need. We are also proud to have sponsored more than 70 guide dogs for individuals who are visually impaired, as well as service dogs for our nation’s veterans.

Serving those facing hardship has always been at the heart of our mission. Through food drives, coat drives, and direct financial assistance, we have stood beside families during their most difficult times. Each year, our members collect thousands of pounds of food and raise funds that are converted into supermarket gift cards, which are distributed through local food pantries. These efforts ensure that families receive the support they need with dignity, compassion, and respect.

Our commitment extends far beyond immediate assistance. We have improved local playgrounds, organized community beach cleanups, awarded scholarships to deserving students, supported Camp Badger for children with special needs, and responded whenever emergencies have called for helping hands. Following Superstorm Sandy, our members worked tirelessly to package and distribute emergency supplies and played an active role in rebuilding our community soup kitchen, helping our neighbors recover and rebuild during one of the most challenging times in our community’s history.

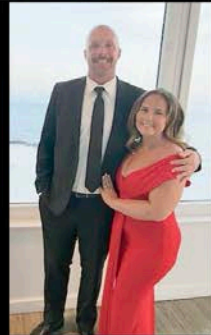

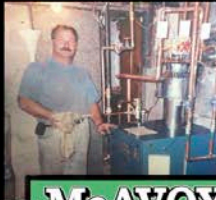

The Long Beach Lions Club is also proud to support many outstanding nonprofit organizations whose missions align with our own spirit of service. Among them is the Marine Corps Scholarship Foundation, which provides educational opportunities for the children of United States Marines through undergraduate, career, and technical education scholarships. We have also supported the Martin Luther King Jr. Center, whose many programs include youth development, tutoring, and a community food pantry. Our club has contributed to the Veterans of Foreign Wars and to Fans for the Cure, a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting awareness and encouraging early detection of prostate cancer. Disaster relief has long been another cornerstone of our service. Whether responding to local emergencies or supporting broader humanitarian efforts, our members have answered the call whenever and wherever help has been needed.

None of these accomplishments would have been possible without the extraordinary dedication of our volunteers and the unwavering generosity of our community. Through golf outings, celebrity events, karaoke nights, bingo, raffles, boardwalk sales, and countless other fundraising events, we have raised the resources necessary to continue serving others. Every dollar raised has been invested back into our mission, allowing us to provide hope, assistance, and opportunity to those who need it most.

As we celebrate our first century of service, we reflect with pride on all that has been accomplished through the compassion and commitment of our members. While much has changed over the past 100 years, one thing has remained constant: our dedication to serving others.

The Long Beach Lions Club looks forward to continuing this legacy for generations to come meeting new challenges, answering new needs, and proving that whenever our community calls, Lions will always be there.

MaAvoy Plumbing

Charles A. McAvoy ("Grandpa Charlie") served in the U.S. Navy, where he learned the plumbing trade as a pipefitter. During his service, he made many valuable connections and returned home with a plan. In 1926, he founded Charles A. McAvoy Plumbing & Heating, Inc., known to generations of local residents simply as McAvoy Plumbing.

The company operated from the basement of 87 Nebraska Street, a modest bungalow in the West End of Long Beach where Grandpa Charlie lived with his wife, Dolly ("Grandma Dolly"), their son Robert McAvoy, and their daughter Patricia McAvoy.

As family lore tells it, Grandpa Charlie secured a surplus of copper piping through connections he made while serving in the Navy. His customers proudly boasted of having some of the first copper water mains in town. Business was strong from the beginning, and the company earned major contracts with the U.S. Coast Guard facilities in Short Beach and Silver Point, Atlantic Beach.

By 1940, the business was thriving. Grandpa Charlie constructed a new commercial building at 301 West Park Avenue (our home to this day) and built a beautiful residence on the bay at 480 West Bay Drive. That same year, he served as President of the Lions Club.

Our father, Robert C. McAvoy, was born in 1930. After graduating from Chaminade High School, he immediately joined the family business. He married our mother, Anne, and together they raised seven children: Robert ("Coley"), Merri, Karin, Kevin, Peggy, Michael, and Charles.

All of the McAvoy sons followed their father and grandfather into the plumbing trade. Coley moved to San Diego, California, where he recently retired as Head of Plumbing Maintenance for the Del Mar Fairgrounds and Racetrack. Michael worked for the family business in Long Beach before relocating to California and later Florida, where he continues to work as a plumber in the Palm Beach area.

Grandma Dolly passed away in 1974, and Grandpa Charlie passed away in 1979. For years before his passing, Grandpa would often tell our father, "One day this will all be yours." Dad proudly led the business from 1979 until his sudden passing in March 1989 at the age of 58.

Dad was deeply involved in the community. He served as President of the Lions Club from 1985 to 1986 and sat on the Board of Directors of Central Federal Savings and Loan Bank. We all have fond memories of helping with Lions Club events throughout town, especially the annual Labor Day 10-Mile Run, which is now a 5-mile run named after our dad.

At the time of Dad's passing, Kevin was 33 and Charles was 24. Kevin became the licensed plumber and together they assumed responsibility for the company and continued the tradition established by Grandpa Charlie more than six decades earlier.

In 2006, Kevin's eldest son, Kevin Jr., joined the business, followed by his younger son, Robert, in 2009, marking the fourth generation of McAvoy plumbers.

Kevin and Charles operated the company together until Kevin's retirement in 2021. Today, Charles, Kevin Jr., and Robert continue to lead the business, proudly carrying forward the McAvoy name and the commitment to quality service that has defined the company for a century.

As we celebrate 100 years of McAvoy Plumbing, we remain grateful to the generations of customers, employees, family members, and friends whose support has made this milestone possible.

Mayor Michael McGinty and Jeanne McGinty

Mayor Michael McGinty and Jeanne McGinty have dedicated their lives to serving the people of Island Park and making their community a better place. Through public service, volunteerism, faith and leadership, they have touched countless lives and left a lasting legacy of compassion and commitment.

For more than 12 years Mayor, Michael McGinty has led the Incorporated Village of Island Park with vision and determination. During his tenure, he has secured more than $45 million in federal and state grants for flood and tidal mitigation, road reconstruction, and infrastructure improvements. His leadership has helped strengthen the village and protect it for future generations. He also oversaw the rebuilding of the Island Park fire department headquarters, and the acquisition of two pumper trucks and a ladder truck, providing firefighters with the resources needed to keep residents safe. In addition to his work as mayor, Michael is a respected mathematics professor at Nassau Community College. His dedication to education earned him the prestigious SUNY Teacher of Excellence Award. Following the example of his father, Frank McGinty, a former Deputy Mayor of Island Park, Michael has embraced a lifelong commitment to community service and civic pride.

Standing beside him every step of the way has been his wife of 33 years, Jeanne McGinty. Jeanne has devoted her adult life to volunteerism and charitable work. Through her service at Sacred Heart Church, including the Rosary Society, Altar Society, food pantry and White Elephant thrift sales, she has provided support and comfort to countless families. Her commitment to service also extends to the Catholic Daughters of the Americas, the Knights of Columbus Ladies Auxiliary and the Oceanside American Legion Ladies Auxiliary where she has held leadership roles and contributed countless hours. Jeanne has also been a steadfast partner in Michael's public service, assisting with village functions and supporting activities associated with the Nassau Community College Foundation. Together they have formed a remarkable team, united by a shared belief in giving back and helping others

Today, we honor Michael and Jeanne McGinty not only for the many accomplishments, but for the example they set. Their years of service, sacrifice, dedication, faith and generosity are an inspiration. For more than three decades, they have worked side-by-side to strengthen the community, uplift their neighbors, and serve causes greater than themselves. They remind us that true leadership is measured not by personal success, but by the positive difference we make in the lives of others.

Jack's Pizza • Natalello Family

Since purchasing Jack's Pizzeria on September 13th, 2011, the Natalello family has transformed the restaurant into more than just a neighborhood Pizzeria – it has become a gathering place, a community cornerstone, and a true home away from home for the residents of the Island Park.

Owners Nate and Josephine Natalello, along with their children Charlie and Michelle, brought their passion for authentic Italian cuisine and family values from Brooklyn to Long Island. Nate and Josephine first met in Brooklyn in 1982. At that time, Nate was already involved in the Pizza business, while Josephine had developed her talents as a baker. Their shared love of food, family, and hospitality, laid the foundation for a lifelong partnership. After marrying and raising their family, they made the move to Long Island, bringing with them generations of culinary tradition, and a distinctive Brooklyn flair.

At Jacks Pizzeria, every meal reflects the Natalello families' commitment to quality and authenticity. Using only the freshest ingredients, they offer a menu filled with classic Italian favorites, specialty pizzas, fresh salads, and homemade dishes that evoke the warmth and comfort of a meal at Nonna's house. Their casual ambience and welcoming atmosphere make every customer feel like a part of the family.

The Natalello's impact extends far beyond their kitchen. Deeply committed to giving back, they have become an integral part of the Island Park community. The family proudly sponsors local youth programs, including Little League teams, supports PTA initiatives, and regularly assists families facing difficult circumstances. Their generosity includes donating meals to the food pantry at Sacred Heart Church, and providing support to local families in times of crisis, including those who have lost their homes and possessions due to tragedy.

Through their dedication to exceptional food, genuine hospitality, and unwavering community service, the Natalello family has earned the respect and affection of Island Park residents. More than a restaurant, Jacks Pizzeria represents family, tradition and community spirit – a place where neighbors become friends and everyone is welcome with open arms.

Today, Jacks Pizzeria remains a testament of the Natalello family's belief that great food and caring for others are the ingredients that truly bring a community together.

I would like to congratulate all the Lions. With the support of friends and families, we have been able to make donations to help many people throughout the entire world! This was made possible through fundraising events that include Golf Outings; Duck Plucks; Food Drives; Raffles; Calendar Sales; Galas and Children's Events.

Through the years, we have collected and donated thousands of pounds of food, thousands of dollars in gift cards and donations, toys, and turkeys, etc. We have also sponsored approximately 70 Service Dogs, some of which were local and others to foreign countries.

A Man of Long Beach

There are men who pass through life quietly
And those who leave their mark on every shore

Our Father was one of those rare souls
Who gave not just his time but his heart forevermore.

The ocean winds of Long Beach knew his name.

The streets, the homes, the people did too
He walked among neighbors never seeking praise
But simply because helping others was what he was born to do.

He gave his strength when others were weary

His wisdom when answers were hard to find

He offered a hand before anyone asked

With mere generosity on his mind.

His story shall echo

From the sea and from above

A life well lived, a community well served

And a legacy built on love.— RWC

Congratulations, Dad, on this well-deserved honor.

For as long as we can remember, your life has been dedicated to your family and to McAvoy Plumbing. You have spent countless early mornings, late nights, weekends, holidays, and everything in between working tirelessly to provide for all of us. Your work ethic, dedication, and commitment to our family are unmatched, and the example you set inspires us every day.

While this recognition celebrates 100 years of McAvoy Plumbing, it also celebrates the generations of hard work that have kept the business strong. We are incredibly proud of all that you have accomplished and grateful for everything you continue to do for our family.

Thank you for your sacrifice, your leadership, and your unwavering love and support.

A Message of Gratitude from Rabbi Binyamin Silver and the Young Israel of Long Beach

On the Occasion of the Long Beach Lions Club Centennial Celebration

One hundred years. One hundred years of showing up, for neighbors in need, for families facing hardship, for a community made immeasurably better by your presence.

On behalf of the Young Israel of Long Beach and our entire congregation, we extend our deepest gratitude and warmest congratulations to the Long Beach Lions Club on this extraordinary milestone.

The Torah teaches us that tzedakah, often translated as charity but more accurately understood as righteousness, is not merely a generous impulse. It is a pillar upon which civilization stands. Maimonides taught that the highest form of giving is not a single grand act, but the steady, reliable hand that a community can count on year after year. That is the Lions Club. That has always been the Lions Club.

For a century, your dedicated members have embodied this ideal, providing eyeglasses to children who need them, ensuring seniors do not go hungry, caring for the disabled, and showing up at every moment of need in Long Beach and beyond. Part of the world's largest volunteer organization, you have brought the global mission of "We Serve" home to our streets, our neighbors, and our families.

You have shown us, again and again, that the values we hold most dear, caring for one another, lifting the fallen, and building a world of loving kindness, belong to no single faith or background. They are the shared language of good people doing good work.

Congratulations on one hundred years of devoted service to this city we all love. May God bless you with health, strength, and purpose for another hundred years of continued success, and may the good you have planted in this community continue to grow and bear fruit for generations to come.

With admiration and gratitude,

Congratulations Long Beach Lions Club – 100 Years of Service

1926-2026

For 100 years, the members of the Long Beach Lions Club have exemplified what it means to serve with compassion, dedication and heart. Through countless acts of kindness, support for those in need, and unwavering commitment to their community, your Club has left an extraordinary legacy that will inspire generations to come. The Club is celebrating it's 100th anniversary in 2026, marking a century of service to the Long Beach community.

As Lions, we know that service is not measured by years alone, but by the lives touched, the friendships formed and the community strengthened. For a century, the Long Beach Lions have embodied the Lions motto, "We Serve", making a lasting difference throughout Long Beach and beyond.

On behalf of PDG Sue Piccolo and The Cop Shop of Massapequa, we extend our heartfelt congratulations on this remarkable milestone. May you continue to grow, inspire, and serve for another hundred years.

Dear Members of the Lions Club,

There is a word in our tradition for what you do. It is chesed, acts of loving kindness. It does not mean giving when it is convenient or recognized. It means showing up for someone you may never meet, trusting that your generosity will find its way to the person who needs it most.

I have seen that happen firsthand. A gift card you provided reached a neighbor in our community who did not have enough money for basic necessities. I drove to his home and watched the relief wash over his face. In that moment, your kindness became something more than assistance. It became dignity restored.

But that moment is not the exception. It is who you are. Week after week, season after season, you feed the hungry and stand beside neighbors in crisis. You do not wait to be asked. You organize, you fund, you show up.

Our sages teach that the world itself stands on acts of loving kindness. I believe that. And I believe that organizations like yours are among the reasons it still does.

On behalf of the BACH Jewish Center and the Long Beach community, thank you for your service. Thank you for the lives you have touched and the burdens you have lightened.

Dear Josephine and Nate Natalello and Family, of Jack's Pizza.

Thank you for being such a valued and respected part of the Island Park and Long Beach communities. Your generosity, kindness, and unwavering support have touched countless lives and continue to make a meaningful difference every day.

Through your dedication to helping others, you have become a true pillar of the community. The positive impact you and your family have made is deeply appreciated by so many, and your commitment to giving back serves as an inspiration to all.

With sincere gratitude and appreciation,

Briget & Dr. Ronald Chaikin
